

A large, stylized illustration of a wooden saloon sign. The sign is rectangular with a distressed, weathered texture and the word "SALOON" written in bold, white, block letters. It is mounted on two vertical wooden posts. The left post has a cowboy hat at the top, a horseshoe, and a sheriff's star on a barrel at the bottom. The right post has a coiled rope and a pair of cowboy boots at the bottom. A "WANTED" sign is attached to the right post.
